Peshawar Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.3 May 2023

Ahmadi muslim lawyers barred from practice because of their faith in khyber pakhtunkhwa, pakistan. The world would be shocked to hear that the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Bar Council Peshawar will require that all new lawyers who will join the Bar Council will submit a declaration for admission in the Bar Council to declare that they "do not have any affiliation with either the Qadiani or Lahori groups (who associate themselves with the name of Ahmadis or any other name)." The rule was endorsed on May 3rd, 2023, by the Bar Council Executive Committee. It is the most hurtful and disdainful act of malice and professional degradation. If those entrusted to provide and maintain justice in the country have no shame to debar their cohorts on account of their faith and belief, what sort of justice can you expect of them.

Lahore June 2023

Pakistani authorities have barred Ahmadi Muslims in Pakistan from gathering for Eid-ul-Adha as Muslims worldwide commemorate the Islamic festival. In a grievous violation of basic human rights and religious freedom, circulars by the Lahore Bar Association and the Gojra Bar Association instruct local police forces to take “pre-emptive and preventive” measures to ensure Ahmadi Muslims neither participate in Qurbani (animal sacrifice) ritual carried out by Muslims the world over on the occasion of Eid) nor congregate for prayer on this special day for the Islamic world. The Lahore Bar Association says such “violations” would necessitate taking “strict, iron-handed and preventative” measures. All the FIRs are registered un-der Section 298-C of the Pakistan Penal Code (PPC).

The following cases were registered on the occasion of Eid-ul-Adha:

- 2 of the cases have been registered at the Saddar Gojra police station in Toba Tek Singh.
- 1 Saddar Shahkot police station in Nankana Sahib,
- 1 Roshanwala Police Station in Faisalabad, against 4 Ahmadis
